

4)

© I know that an $\epsilon = 0$, means it only is greedy and does no exploring. If it does no exploring it cannot get correct values for all states. If its values are off, then it cannot get the optimal policy.